

The European Council's External Action: The Case of the Arab-Israeli Process and the Middle East Peace Process

23 April | 10:00 CET | Zoom

The Resolution of the Arab-Israeli conflict is strongly embedded in the European Union's external action striving for a two-state solution with an independent, democratic, viable and contiguous Palestinian state living side-by-side in peace and security with Israel and its other neighbors. The panel will take up the current state of the debate and discuss the recent role of the European Union and particularly the European Council for the Arab-Israeli process and the Middle East Peace Process.

Teaching and Researching the European Council: Enhancing and disseminating knowledge on a key institution in challenging times

TRACK Objectives

Regarding political and academic challenges, TRACK responds to an ongoing need to provide regular offers for teaching and research on the European Council (EUCO) as a key institution.
